Richard qualified as a Chartered Surveyor in 1992 and started his professional career in the Leeds office of St Quintin. He then took up a position within the High Street Retail and Leisure Team at DTZ in Leeds and became Director of the team in 2000.

Following 10 years' service within a global practice environment, in 2004 Richard co-founded Pudney Shuttleworth, a new specialist Retail and Leisure consultancy, operating on a regional and national basis.

His clients include Lend Lease, Mitchells & Butlers, AEGON, Burford, X- Leisure and JOY, along with a host of more regionally based retailers and leisure operators including Aagrah, Coal Grill & Bar and Brio Restaurants.

Richard has also advised on significant mixed use development schemes including The Light, Brewery Wharf and Clarence Dock in Leeds and Centenary Square in Bradford.
